

Lucca

Luxury Villa with pool from 2 km to old town

Description Designer furniture and a simple color scheme give VILLA 8888 a classic, elegant feel, that is made for hosting large crowds. The countryside-facing walls are covered with floor-to-ceiling glass and openings to the garden and terraces, promoting a free-flowing, social atmosphere. Modern-contemporary interior decoration puts THE 8888 on the cutting-edge of stylish Italian design and provides the perfect contrast to the natural features of the Tuscan hills. Outside, the Villa has a gorgeous lush property for your special event. There is a barbecue, a grand pool measuring 14 x 7 metres, a panoramic terrace surrounded by a bamboo wood, amazing secluded verandas with superior outdoor furniture and a manicured garden. Inside, the duplex living room and the exceptional kitchen are spaces that make THE 8888 extra special. The city centre of Lucca is just a short and comfortable drive away. Drive for just 5 minutes to reach the Roman and Medieval Squares and sit down for a taste of authentic local Wine with a view over the Walls that surrounds the city of Lucca or drive 20 mins to grab an ice cream after sunbathing on the nearby beaches of the Versilia and Forte dei Marmi. Excursions to the nearby sites and towns of Florence, Pisa, San Gimignano and Cinque Terre, known for its colourful villages perched on the rocky riviera are a must.
